The Pomme d'Or Hotel has picked up a prestigious award as 'Best Hotel in the Channel Islands' at the inaugural HotelClub Hotel Awards held in London. The award was collected by Luis de Oliveira, General Manager of the hotel (third from the left). Earlier this year 10,000 consumer voters nominated more than 22,000 hotels across Great Britain & Northern Ireland with the Pomme d'Or coming out top in the Channel Islands, beating other hotel nominations from Jersey, Guernsey and Sark. Other winners included The Dorchester in London, Celtic Manor in Wales, Gleneagles in Scotland & The Gresham in Dublin. Pictured at the awards are Ben Fogle, TV Presenter and host for the evening; Holly Brisley, star of TV's 'Home & Away' and co-host; Luis de Oliveira; and David de Carteret, Director, Jersey Tourism
